DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Bakersville is a small community consisting of fewer than a dozen houses located along Bakersville Road between Keedysville and Williamsport and south of Fairplay in Washington County, Maryland. The buildings are located along the north side of the road, facing south.

Among the buildings, which are for the most part 19th century wooden and brick structures, is a one story three bay early 19th century stone structure formerly a school and church, but now used as a residence. At the east end of the village is the one story, four bay brick Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church which is dated 1854. It has a multisided steeple with a wood shingle roof rising from a square tower.
